

Bennington Free Library's Summer Reading Program for high school students and adults

June 26 – August 9

Build a Better World Activities

Pick up activity sheets and book review forms in the Reference Reading Room.
Return them to the Reference Desk
to be entered for prize drawings.

Build a Better World Programs – FREE & open to the public

Reading Frederick Douglass

Saturday, July 8 at 1 PM

Community reading of Frederick Douglass' fiery 1852 speech, "The Meaning of the Fourth of July for the Negro." Community members are invited to read and/or listen. Informal discussion & light refreshments will follow.

Build the Bennington of Your Dreams

Wednesday, July 19 from 6:30 to 8 PM

How would you design a part of Bennington's future? We'll use recycled materials to create a model community where your biggest dreams take shape! This event is open to children and grownups of all ages. *Pre-registration required: Call 442-9051 or email children@bfli.org

Learn Qigong Monday, July 31 at 6:30 PM

Jeffrey Gordon, Acupuncturist & Qigong Teacher, will introduce Qigong for back and joint care. Learn basic Qigong and Tai Chi principles for balance, bone strength, and energy.

Questions? Please ask at the Reference Desk.

